In accordance with current regulations on protection of personal data:

The responsibility of keeping personal data provided by the applicants in the current grant call falls on the University of Lleida – UdL – (contact details of the representative: General Secretariat.

Plaça de Víctor Siurana, 1, 25003 Lleida; sg@udl.cat; contact details of the data protection delegate: dpd@udl.cat).

- The applicants' data will only be used for purposes inherent to the current procedure of grant allocation.

- The data will be kept at least while the resolution of this procedure does not become firm, taking into account the deadline to contest it without any interested party having brought an action against it, and they will be destroyed in the terms and conditions foreseen in the regulation on conservation and elimination of administrative documents of the University of Lleida, and the document assessment charts approved by the Generalitat de Catalunya (<http://www.udl.cat/ca/serveis/arxiu/>).

- The data provided are compulsory to exert the UdL organizational power inherent to the university autonomy, within the framework of article 27.10 of the Constitution; of the Organic Bill 6/2001, of December 21st, on Universities; of the University of Lleida Statutes; and of the legislation on civil servants and on the legal System of the public sector.

- The UdL will neither provide nor communicate these data to any third party, except for the cases strictly foreseen in the Law.

- Applicants will be allowed to access their own data; to ask for their amendment, suppression or portability; to oppose to their treatment and to ask for its limitation, as long as it is compatible with the condition of applicant in the current grant allocation procedure, by submitting a petition to the address dpd@udl.cat.

They will be able to file a claim addressed to the Catalan Authority on Data Protection, on its electronic site (<https://seu.apd.cat>) or by non-electronic means."

- I object to the verification of my data. The University of Lleida informs that it remains authorized to carry out the necessary checks to check the accuracy of the data that are essential to process this request. In accordance with article 28.2 of Law 39/2015, of October 1, on the common administrative procedure, applicants have the right to oppose the exercise of this power of verification, for reasons related to their particular situation. In any case, in the exercise of this right of opposition, it is necessary to prove the reasons that justify it, so that they are valued by the University, and there is the obligation to provide the documents to the consultation of which they are opposed.
